The Oriana Singers have been producing sweet sounds in Northumberland County for over 35 years. Established as a small choral ensemble favouring madrigals, the Oriana Singers have grown in size over the years, with a current membership of more than 50 talented voices.

Under the direction of Marie Anderson and accompanist-composer Robert Grandy this choir offers a yearly concert series that includes the best choral music of all styles, from gospel to jazz, classical to avant-garde. Guest artists perform regularly with the Oriana Singers and attention is given to interesting staging details that contribute to the enrichment of the concert experience.

The choir rehearses on Wednesdays at 7:30 from September to early June. If you love to sing and are up to being challenged musically with a diverse repertoire, contact Marie Anderson and ask about joining us.
